"LAST WORD"

As these were the last words of the Class of 1916, so do they hold true with the Class of 1941. May they bring memories to one of our number, Leo Franklin, who graduated with that class.

"The compositor has set '30' and the story closes. Our work as Seniors in the Pendleton High School has become ancient history. We have reached the place where 'parting is such sweet sorrow.' Already yesterday is shaded in mists and vapors and we are compelled to look over our shoulder to see it. This we are glad to say we shall do many times in the turmoil of the years to come.

"People are composite and as a poet said once, 'We are a part of all that we have met.'

"In memory of the grand times we have enjoyed in the Pendleton High School, as a tribute to our alma mater and those friends who struck palms with us, we leave this Annual as an offering of our appreciation and gratitude. May it be counted throughout the years as a gem of remembrance between us."

FOREWORD

We, the staff of the 1941 Papyrus, hope you will like the picture we present of this, the twenty-fifth anniversary voyage of the good ship Papyrus upon Pendleton's Sea of Learning.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1941, dedicate this twenty-fifth Papyrus to the mothers and fathers of our number. We do this in all sincerity and thankfulness, for, acting as our pilots, they have guided us until we are now ready to set sail upon the open seas of life.

We thank you, Mother and Father. May many great blessings be bestowed upon you.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Our Student Council acts as a group representing the student body. It is composed of one member elected from each of the four upper grades with a fifth member (senior) acting as president.

There are four departments of the council, with one member in charge of each. They are outdoor patrols, indoor patrols, playground supervision, and cleanliness of the building and grounds.

Although the Student Council is little seen or heard, the members are constantly working with the faculty to help better our school conditions.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club was founded twelve years ago for the purpose of studying dramas and their production. Its membership is limited to students of junior and senior ranking. During the year, the Dramatic Club has met once every three weeks. Members of the club presented two plays at Christmas convocation.

The officers for 1940-1941 were Priscilla Phipps, president; Jeanette Keesling, vice-president; Phyllis Jones, secretary; Patricia Randall, treasurer; Emma Jean Wisehart, reporter.

Left to right: Jean Milner, Ruth Tracey, Virginia Reichenbach, Phyllis Jones, Jeanette Keesling, Jean Southard, Roger Bahr, Mildred Smith, Priscilla Phipps, Alice Doty, Marcia McVaugh, Emma Jean Wisehart, Bob Craig, Eleanor McCombs, Norma Jo Frazee, Bob Elsbury, John Underwood, Martha Wishard, Patsy Milne, Bob Smith, Helen Thomas, Doris Pulos, Miss Ellsworth, Jean Brown, Carl Walker, Katharine Longest, Martina Maxwell, Mildred Hilbert, Bob Gray, Jeanne Cox, Patricia Randall, Jesse Rozelle, Martha McCormick, Marshall Bonewitz, Bill Harshman.

Under the direction of Mr. Holloway, the band has come to take an important part in school activities. It now has about forty members. During the year, it has met for practice four days a week. It has played at all the home basketball games, and at several convocations.

SAFETY PATROLS

The members of the Safety Patrol guard the more dangerous street crossings, and patrol the school sidewalks both noon and evening for the benefit of the students of the grades and high school. We owe thanks to these boys for their courteous and efficient service at all times.

BUS DRIVERS

The bus drivers are given the responsibility of bringing the students who live in the country to school and taking them home in the evening. We take this opportunity to express our appreciation of their service.

LIBRARIAN STAFF

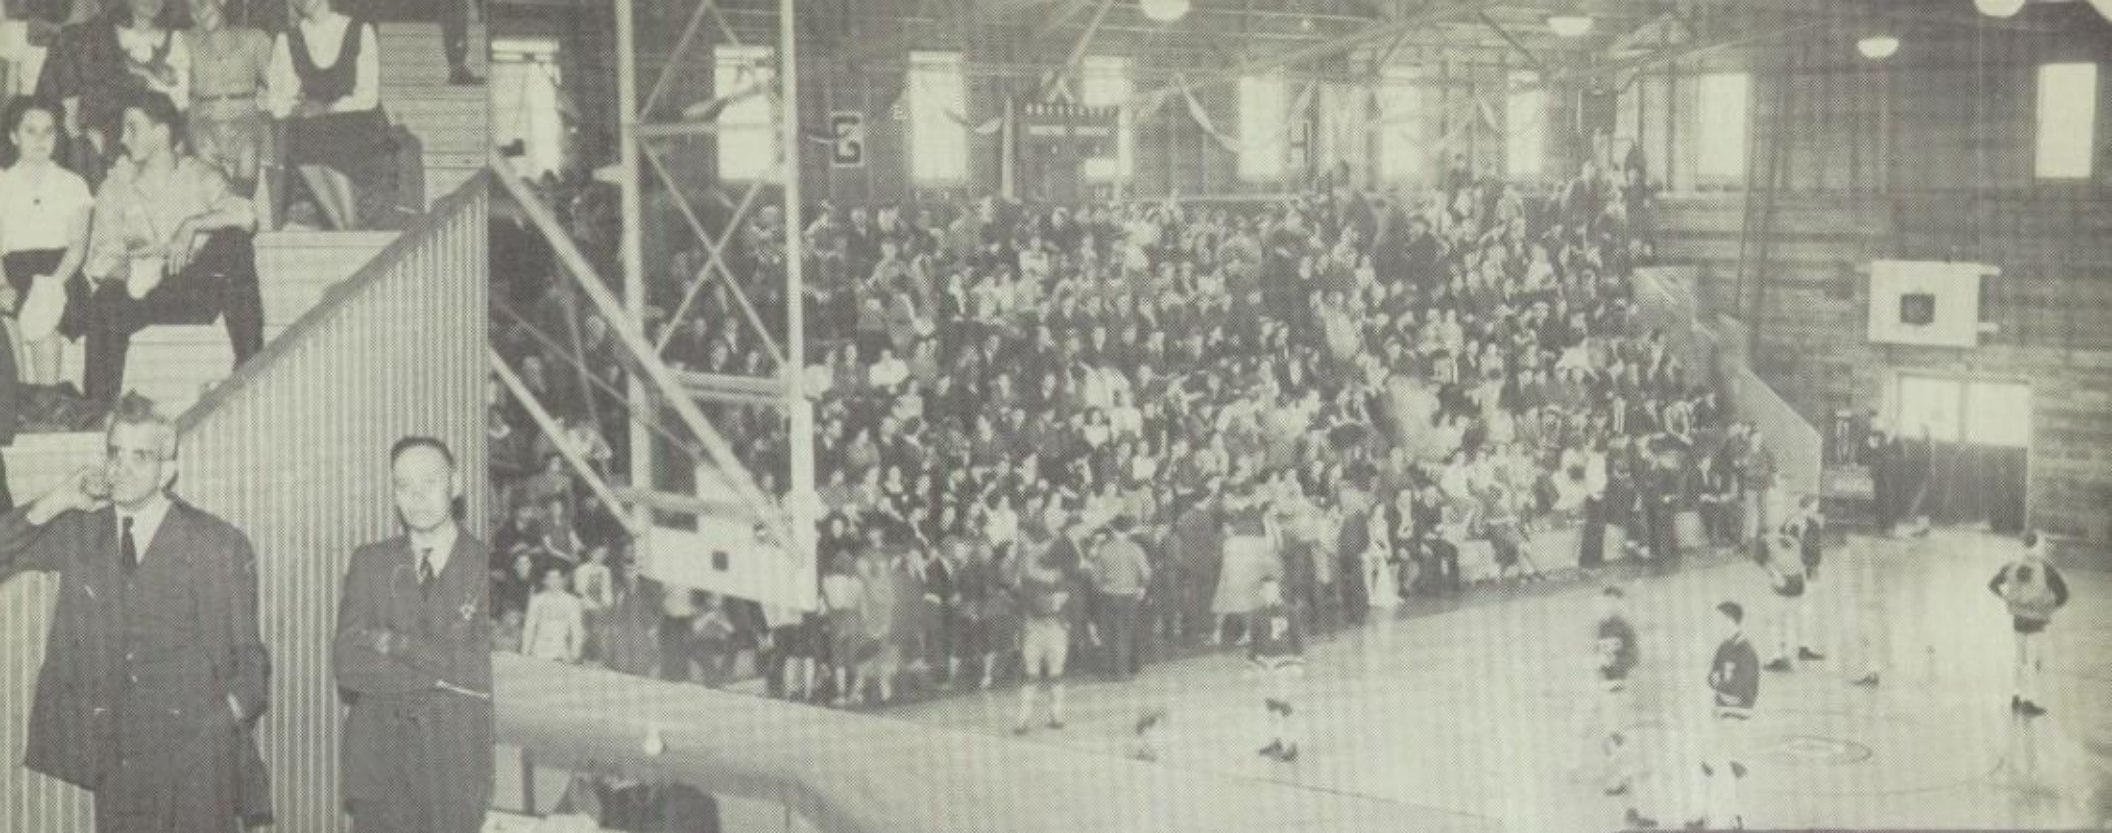

Margaret Ayers, Virginia Reichenbach, Jeanette Keesling, Ruth Tracey, Norma Jo Frazee, Jean Peek, Leona Ridgway, Miss Hallowell, Leona Kiphart, Dorine Howard, Jeannette Stoner.

The assistant librarians are students from the four upper grades chosen by Miss Hallowell. The requirements are good citizenship and a willingness to heed and obey all instructions.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

Under the expert coaching of Ed Johnson, the "Fighting Irish" of '40 and '41 really accomplished great things.

Pendleton High School is certainly proud of this year's team, both as ball players and sportsmen. It wasn't easy for the team to go down in defeat in the final game of the sectional, against Anderson, by one point. The Irish deserve much credit for the fine showing they made in the sectional.

FIRST TEAM

Front Row: Bob Craig, Roger Bahr, George Wood, Ed Jones, Bob Smith.

Back Row: Raymond Hoppes, Niles Gammon, Maurice Whelchel, Glen Scott.

SECOND TEAM

FRESHMAN TEAM

SUMMARY OF '40 AND '41 SEASON

During the first month of the season the Irish broke even. They won games from Summitville, Markleville, and Elwood, while losing to Knightstown, Burris, and Lapel.

The Irish began to get in step, and downed Sheridan, Lawrence, Fortville, Middletown, and St. Mary's before they lost the first game of their own Invitational Tournament to Lapel by a score of 34-26.

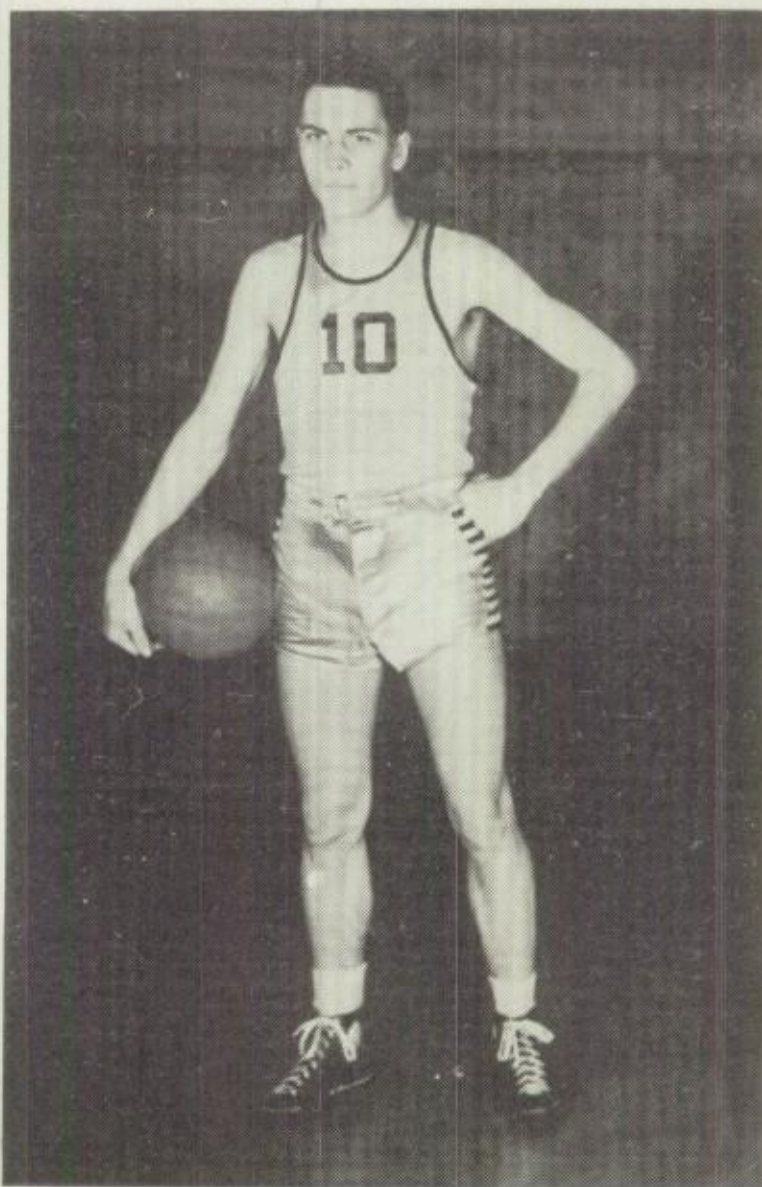

After the tourney Pendleton came back to beat Alexandria, Warren Central, Greenfield, and Noblesville before they were again turned back by the Lapel Bulldogs 39-32.

The Irish came right back to win games from Markleville, Hagerstown, and Fortville. At the close of the season the "Fighting Irish" looked better than ever, with a record of sixteen games won against five lost.

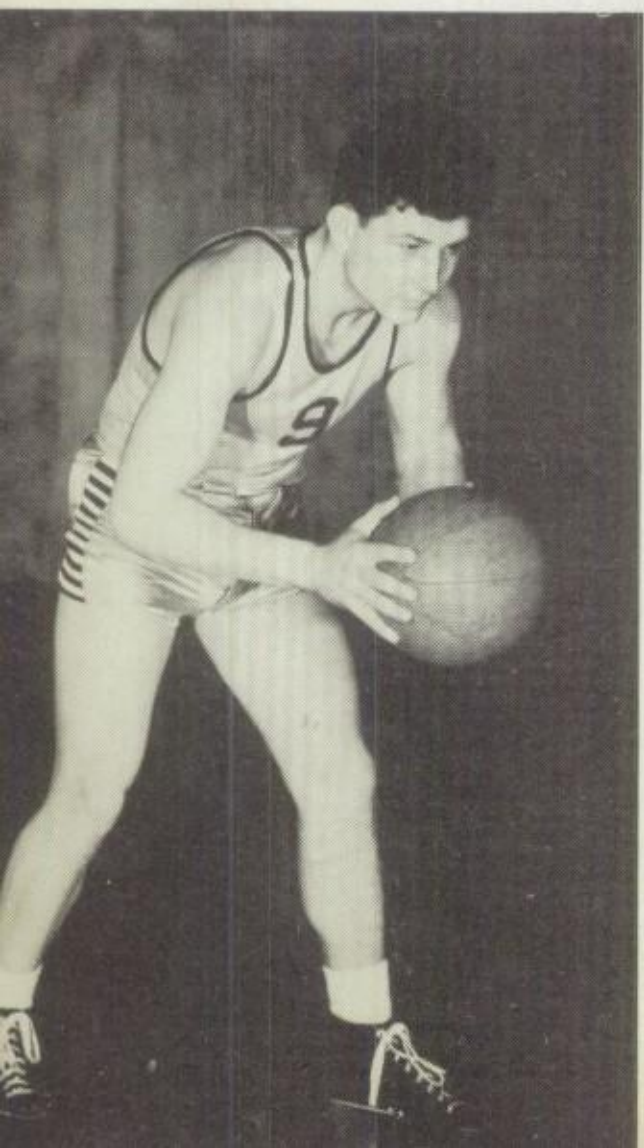

Niles Gammon played his second year on the team, while in his second year at Pendleton. Niles was a good ball handler and rebound man. Being a senior, he will be missed next year.

Roger Bahr played two years with the team, at forward. His faky play under the basket has made him a great threat. He is another of the eight seniors who will be missed next year.

Bob Craig enjoyed his third year as regular on the team. He was all-county forward both this year and last. Bob's pivot shooting had much to do toward the success of this year's team.

Ed Jones played his third and last year on the team. His height and ability to get rebounds helped the team win many games. Ed was all-county selection for center this year.

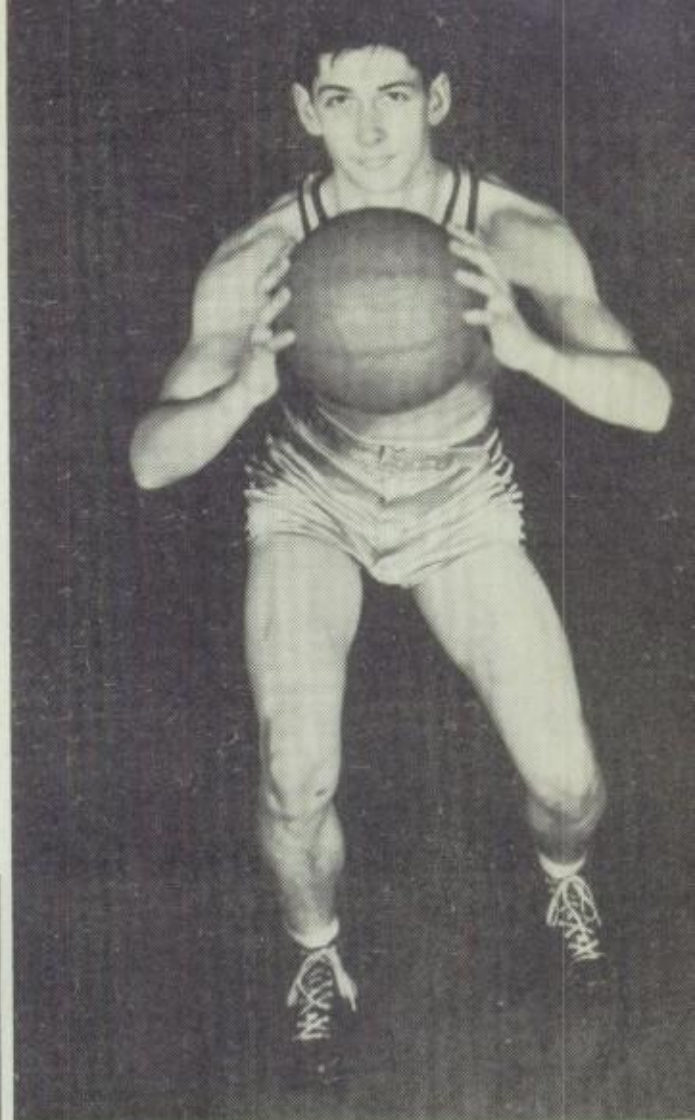

Raymond Hoppes, a senior, has been a regular on the team three years, and all-county guard the last two. His ball-handling and long shots were his outstanding features.

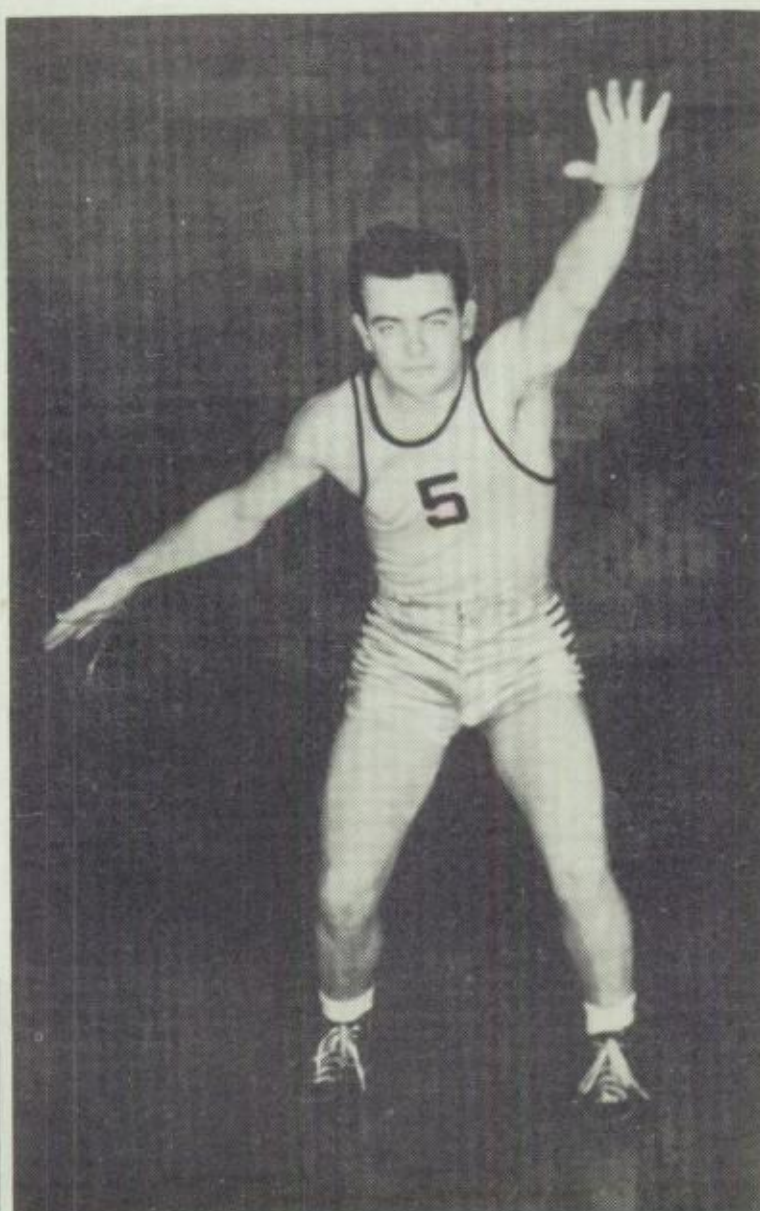

Bob Smith, another senior, was a sub on this year's team. Bob, a hard worker, was ready to go into the game and give all he had for the team.

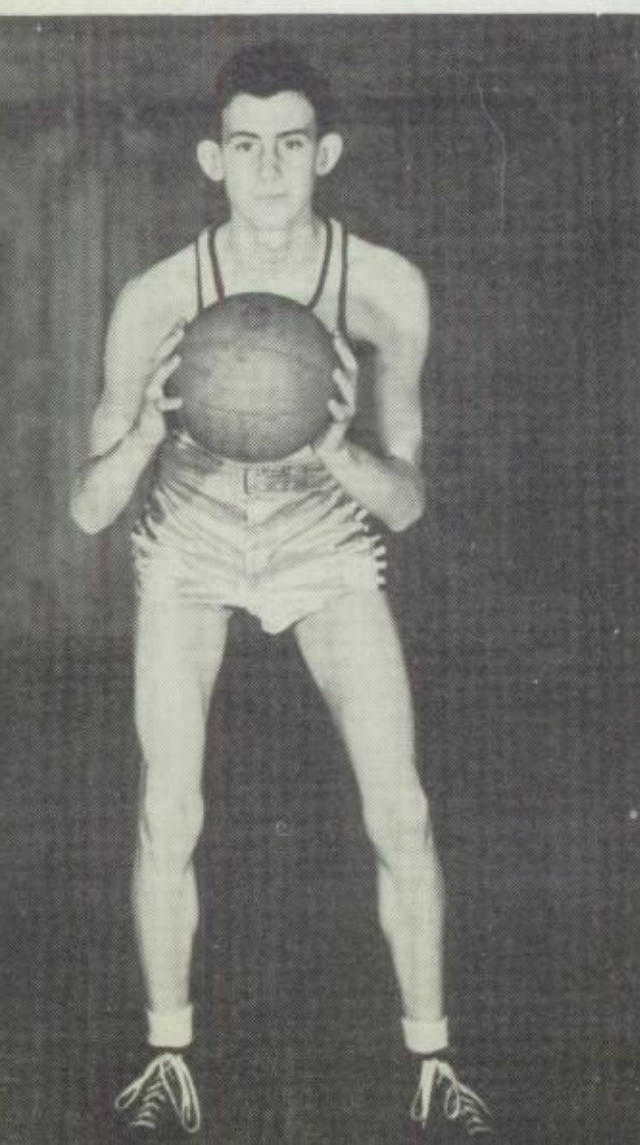

Glen Scott, a senior, has been with the first team one year.

George Wood, only a sophomore, worked his way up to become a regular this year. George is a good defensive man, and is expected to accomplish great things his next two years.

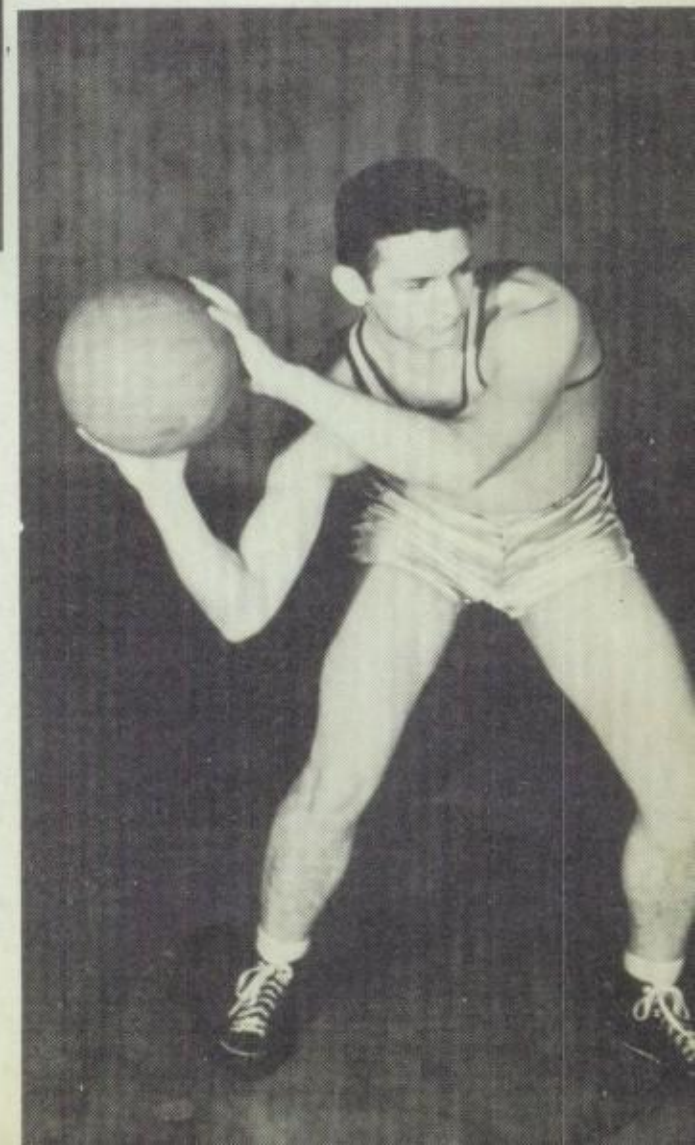

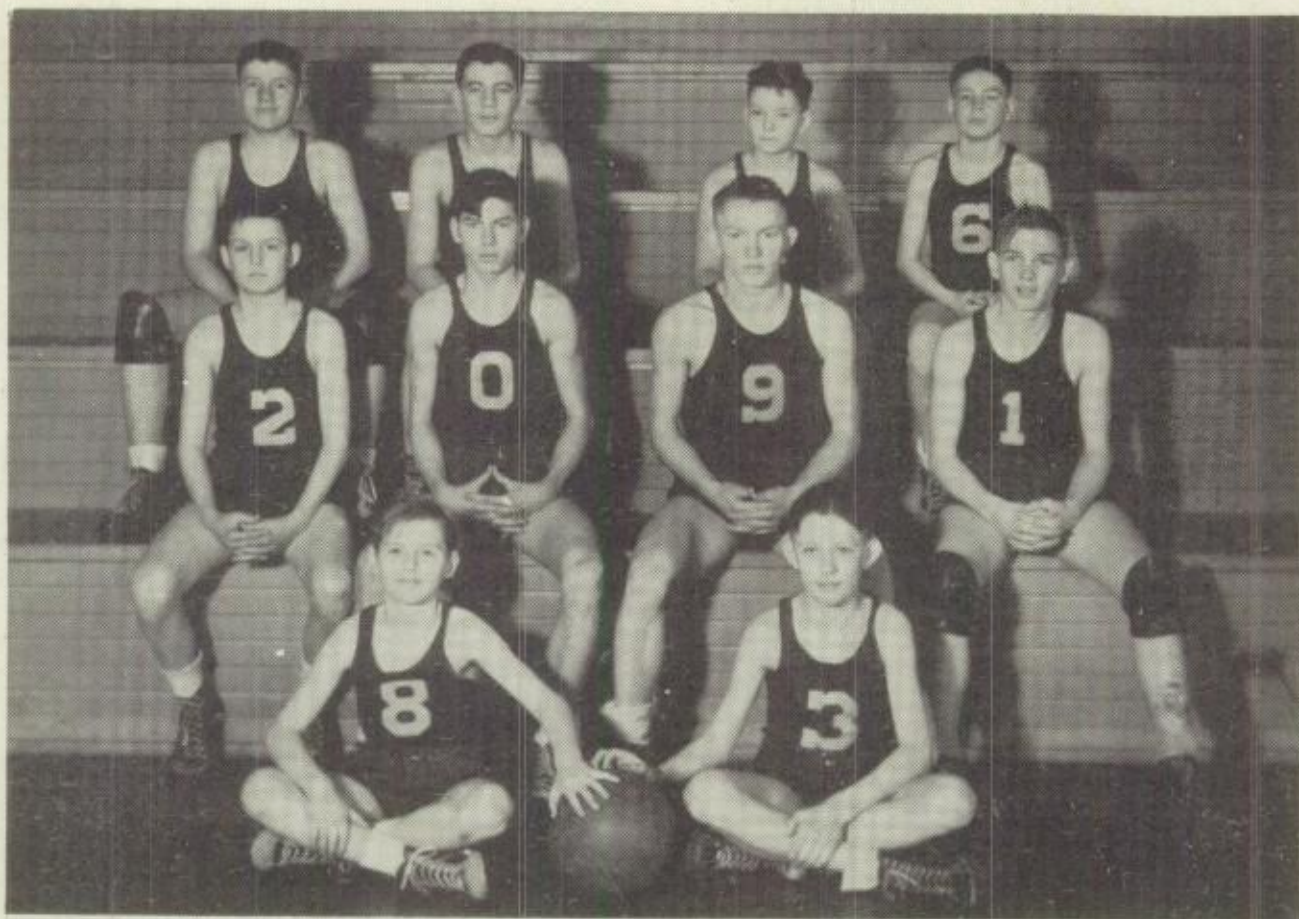

Maurice Whelchel, although he didn't see much action, was always pulling for the team. "Monk" was always ready to enter the game, and show what he could do.

Being a sub, Glen could always be depended upon to go into the game and play good ball.

Leland Berry, the only junior, was a good long shot artist. Leland, a sub this year, is expected to do much toward the success of next year's team.

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL

With the return of eight lettermen, the baseball team had a very successful season.

Against Middletown in the opening fall game, the Irish played to a tie, when the game was called because of darkness. Pendleton was victorious over Fortville 9-2. Hartford City handed the Irish their first and last defeat of the season 3-1, for they went on to win their last four games. The Irish defeated Lapel twice, Hartford City in a return game, and Fortville in the final game of the season.

The team ended the season with an average of .800, and is looking forward to a successful spring season against tougher opposition.

Front Row: Junior Poore, Bill Humble, Gene Sheets, Wayne Scott, K Southard, Keith Bulen. Back Row: Glen Scott, Niles Gammon, Roger Bahr, George Wood, Curtis Stephenson, Bob Craig, Raymond Hoppes.

HIGH SCHOOL TRACK

Under the coaching of Leo Franklin, the Pendleton track team is looking forward to a successful season.

The team has meets with New Castle, Markleville, Howe, Alexandria, Greenfield, Warren Central, Kokomo Relays, Gas City, Rose-Relays, and the sectional.

BOOSTER COMMITTEE

The Booster Committee was founded four years ago by Mr. Ellsworth, who still appoints the members from the four upper classes. The main purposes of the committee are to plan pep sessions, to decorate the gymnasium for basketball games, and to further good sportsmanship among the student body.

ATHLETIC BOARD

Left to right: Irvin Ellsworth, principal; Ernest Harris, secretary; Floyd Miner, superintendent; Ed Johnson, coach.

The Athletic Board directs the numerous activities of our athletic schedule. At its disposal are all funds derived from various athletic contests. Due to the able management of this board, our athletic teams now rank among the best equipped in the state.

"THE WISHING WELL"

On March 28, the glee clubs, under the direction of Miss Lyons, presented the operetta "The Wishing Well."

Banker: So you want us to mortgage your farm. Well, I'll drive down and appraise it.

Farmer, noticing a cloud of dust rolling up the road: Don't bother. Here it comes now.

"There's the fellow I'm laying for," said the hen as the farmer crossed the yard.

First Old Maid: I shiver every time I think of a handsome young man kissing me.

Second Old Maid: And here I been thinking you had St. Vitus dance all these years.

Dentist: You yelled like a wild man. I thought at least you had a little nerve.

Raymond Hoppes (nursing jaw): I did. You'll find it in that tooth.

Three basketball stars went into a cafe to eat.

First Star: Give me a steak and make it thick and rare.

Second Star: Give me a steak and make it thicker and more rare.

Third Star: Just send the bull through and I'll bite him on the run.

SENIOR HILLBILLY PARTY

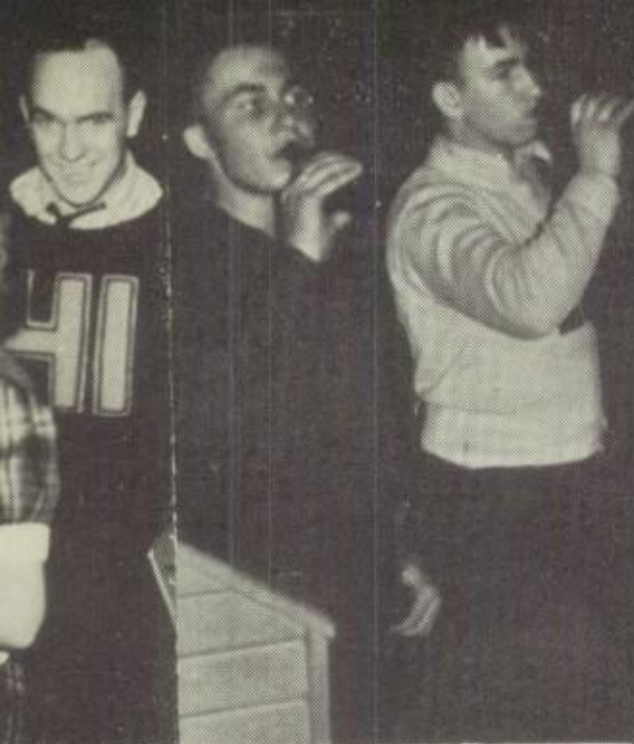

On October 23, the senior class held a hillbilly party at John Underwood's barn. "Corn-squeezins" (apple cider) were greatly in evidence, and a good deal of feudin' was carried on; however no one was seriously injured, and the evening was topped off by a real old-fashioned hay ride.

A prize was offered the class which should have the greatest per cent of its members present at the final basketball game of the season. The seniors accepted this challenge with the true spirit of '41. As the picture taken at the game shows, the '41ers had an attendance of almost 100 per cent.

The Class of '41 has contributed several important factors to Pendleton's basketball games. Eight boys from its ranks were awarded basketball sweaters, and Wilbur Rider received a student manager's sweater. Dale Croxton has been one of P. H. S.'s yell leaders for the past four years. The '41ers have reason to be proud.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1941

We, the illustrious class of 1941 of Pendleton High School, being sound of mind and student body (except for a slight case of senioritis) do hereby and forthwith solemnly set forth the following document as our last high scholarly will and testament.

ARTICLE I

Knowing that we can never be replaced and realizing how great a void is left by our departure, we unselfishly leave to the school the many memories of our years as high school students.

ARTICLE II

Understanding full well how much we shall be missed by the faculty, we do for consolation endow them with the following gifts.

1. To Miss Hallowell, as her private domain and happy-hunting grounds, the library.
2. To Miss Ellsworth, in order that she may gain a little well merited rest, a putuminantakumout, the newly patented machine for automatic grading of all English themes.
3. To Mr. Ellsworth, a magical magnetic pen and pencil, which will always be at hand when he is in need of them. Thus he may be saved many hours of pocket-searching.
4. To Mr. Johnson, a basketball team equal in ability to this year's team.
5. To Mr. Franklin, a reclining wheel chair equipped with a motor, in order that his energy may be conserved and his lethargic tendencies satisfied.
6. To Mr. Smith, a mustache to improve his appearance.
7. To Mr. Miner, in view of his present hairitage, a bottle of Hire's Harmless Hair Raiser.
8. To Mr. Harris, a physics class which will have the greatest of respect for scales, thermometers, and all other delicate laboratory apparatus.
9. To Miss Zenor, so that her appearance may be more stern, a pair of horn-rimmed spectacles.
10. To Mr. Dexter, in the height of good humor, a pair of stilts.
11. To Miss Goff, a modern gymnasium equipped with a clinic in which all the little class scratches may be treated.
12. To Miss Burton, a not only soundproof but also odorproof room, so that non-home economics students may pass to their classes without the aid of gas masks.
13. To Mr. Bell, a great quantity of wind, so that he may be able to play his trombone with the greatest of ease.
14. To Miss Lyons, some handsome young man.
15. To Mr. Holloway, enough incoming band members to replace those who are graduating.

ARTICLE III

Sympathizing deeply with the underclassmen, who must try in vain to fill our places, we generously divide our personal possessions among them thus:

- I, John Allen, will my knack of girl-getting to anyone in dire need of it.
- I, Ervin Ashby, will my quiet ways to Walter Rumler.
- I, Kenneth Ayers, will my "gift of gab" to Wayne Scott.
- I, Roger Bahr, will my interest in Indianapolis to Ronald Clark.
- I, Marshall Bonewitz, will all my sophomore girls to Ralph Clendenen.
- I, Dorothy Bridges, will my seat in senior row to Norma Adkins.
- I, Jean Brown, will my basketball enthusiasm to Jean Lee.
- I, Elizabeth Bryant, will my Monday hang-over to Virginia Reichenbach.
- I, Jeanne Cox, will my interest in Bills to Jean Milner.
- I, Bob Craig, will my caveman tactics to Bill Bingaman.
- I, Milford Crosley, will my vocal talent to Wilbur Stinson.
- I, Dale Croxton, will my prowess in yell leading to Priscilla Blakely and Eleanor McCombs.
- I, Eileen Davis, will my interest in Anderson to Bun Bun.
- I, Robert Elsbury, will my imitative talent to Bert Goul.
- I, Niles Gammon, will my position as president of student council to Jesse Rozelle.

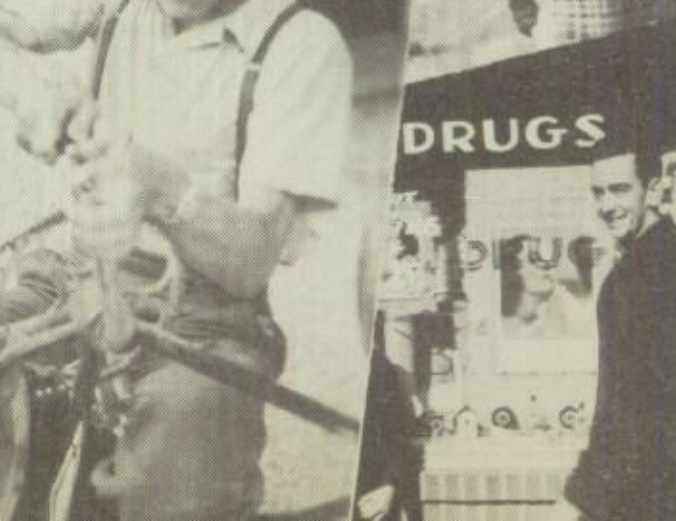

I, Lola Graham, will Wilbur Stinson to Geraldine Ellison.
I, Loris Harless, will my aptitude for all things mechanical to John Israel.
I, Marthadele Henley, will my smallness to John Mort.
I, Mildred Hilbert, will my figure to Dorothea Foust.
I, Raymond Hoppes, will my skill as a basketball player to Dale Michael.
I, Jesse Howard, will my silent nature to Bus Crosley.
I, Gene Jarrett, will my habit of missing the school bus to Wilma Jean Bridges.
I, Ed Jones, will my crew-cut hair to Barbara Southard.
I, Phyllis Jones, will my "steady" technique to Mildred Wildman.
I, Leona Kiphart, will my Latin grades to Martha Wishard.
I, Viola Kiphart, will my pennies to Thelma Siverling.
I, Eral Kuhns, will my proficiency as a drummer to Zale Southard.
I, Katharine Longest, will my freckles to Norma Jean Smith.
I, Martina Maxwell, will my interest in Anderson to Virginia Wright.
I, Martha June McCormick, will my jitterbug ways to Margaret Ayers.
I, Charles Peek, will my job as P.H.S.'s general handy man to anyone unlucky enough to get it.
I, Mildred Pettigrew, will my big brown eyes to Ruth Tracey.
I, Priscilla Phipps, will my graceful dancing to John Ellingwood.
I, Doris Pulos, will my stature to George Wood.
I, Betty Presser, will my interest in Whelchels to Doloris Beeman.
I, Patricia Randall, will the editorship of the "Pen" to anyone who likes worry.
I, Wilbur Rider, will my position as student manager to Robert Crull.
I, Jean Rogers, will my cute little smile to any sober underclassman.
I, Glen Scott, will my curly hair to Richard Dickey.
I, Naomi Sexton, will my unassuming ways to Leona Ridgway.
I, Curtis Stephenson, will my baseball playing ability to Bill Humble.
I, Bob Smith, will my well-worn but still good line to George Underwood.
I, Jean Southard, will my "Frazier twist" to Helen Thomas.
I, John Underwood, will my ability to get money and new cars to Donny Jones.
I, Carl Walker, will my safety first driving to Calvin Whitaker.
I, Maurice Whelchel, will my "monk"-ey shines to Norma Jo Frazee.
I, Bill Zion, will my horse laugh to Larry Elliott.
